

Right to health (Article 12)

Article 12 requires the Government to ensure that everyone has the right to the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health.

According to General Comment No.12 of CESCR, ICESCR 'clearly imposes a duty on each State to take whatever steps are necessary to ensure that everyone has access to health facilities, goods and services so that they can enjoy, as soon as possible, the highest attainable standard of physical and mental health'.

Components of the right to health

Discussion points on the right to health:*

- Budget allocation for key health services and HSE Service Plan;
- Government commitment to introduce a system of universal healthcare;
- Access to healthcare services and lengthy waiting lists;
- Current review of medical card holders and issue of discretionary medical cards;
- Cuts to mental health budget– reduction of €15million in development funding for mental health services in Budget 2014 and lack of adequate services;
- Placement of children under 18 in adult mental health facilities;
- Government action on tobacco and alcohol;
- Location of services poses a problem for people in rural areas without adequate access to transport;
- State's failure to ratify UN Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CPRD).

*This is not an exhaustive list but these issues have arisen through other consultations or through desk research.
